Chapter 407

Alternate Senators

407.1 Alternate Senators shall serve during all semesters in place of Senators who are not serving during any of their respective semesters.

407.1.1 Alternate Senators may be appointed in place of Senators who are not serving during a summer semester if the Senator’s absence has been approved by SenEx.

407.1.2 Alternate Senators may be appointed in place of Senators who are not serving during a Fall or Spring semester if the Senator is absent due to the pursuit of academic programs or academic opportunities including, but not limited to, student exchange, Study Abroad, and out-of-state study, or any other reason approved by SenEx.

407.2 Alternate Senators must be in compliance with all minimum standards required for any student to run for Student Government.

407.2.1 All undergraduate members of Student Government shall be enrolled for a minimum of six credit hours as degree seeking students and all graduate members shall be enrolled for a minimum of four credit hours as post-baccalaureate students.

407.2.2 The members of Student Government must be students in good academic standing, according to the University Code of Conduct, and may not be under disciplinary probation, suspension or expulsion.

407.3 Alternate Senators appointed for Summer Semesters must be students enrolled at the University of South Florida for the Fall Semester following the semester in which they are to serve. The only students exempt from this are those graduating during the respective summer.

407.4 Alternate Senators shall be governed by the Student Government Constitution, Statutes, and Rules of Procedure. Alternate Senators are held accountable in the same fashion as all regularly elected Senators.

407.5 Alternate Senators must be from the same college as the elected Senator they are serving for.

407.6 Alternate Senators may be appointed in following fashion:

407.6.1 Any Senator absent during a semester\textsuperscript{22} and whose absence has been approved by SenEx may appoint any person who has met the standards set forth in this chapter.

407.6.1.1 Senators wishing to appoint an Alternate Senator must submit the request in writing or via e-mail to the Senate President Pro Tempore.

407.6.1.2 Senators wishing to appoint Alternate Senators must do so one week before the third general Senate meeting in the semester in which the Senator will not be serving.\textsuperscript{23}

407.7 If any Senator not serving in a semester chooses\textsuperscript{24} not to exercise their right to appoint an Alternate Senator, the Alternate Senator may be appointed by SenEx.

407.8 The appointment of Alternate Senators by SenEx shall be as follows:

407.8.1 SenEx shall decide before the third meeting of the relevant semester whether or not to appoint Alternate Senators for those Senators who did not exercise their option to appoint an Alternate Senator. A majority vote of SenEx will make this decision.\textsuperscript{25}

407.8.2 SenEx shall review the election results from the most recent election.\textsuperscript{26}

407.8.3 SenEx shall rank all candidates who were not elected according to their highest individual vote count per college.

407.8.4 SenEx shall offer those candidates with the highest vote count the opportunity to serve as an Alternate Senator in place of a Senator in the same college who is not serving and who has not exercised their right in section 409.6.

407.8.5 Those students appointed to be Alternate Senators must have a Senator Application on file before SenEx will review their candidacy.\textsuperscript{27}

407.8.5.1 Should that candidate decline, SenEx shall offer the next highest ranking candidate the opportunity to serve as Alternate Senator.

407.8.5.2 Should a tie occur between two candidates for Alternate Senator, then SenEx shall hold an election process governed by the Senate Rules of Procedure.\textsuperscript{28}

407.8.6 SenEx shall continue this process until all Alternate seats are filled or until the pool of potential Alternate Candidates has been exhausted.

407.9 All Alternate Senators shall be appointed before the third general Senate meeting of the relevant semester.\textsuperscript{29}

407.10 No appointments shall occur after the start of the third general Senate meeting of the relevant semester.\textsuperscript{30}

408

Senate Ad-Hoc Committees Act

408.1 The Senate shall have the power and authority to create and conduct fact-finding committees on entities both internal and external to Student Government.

408.2 The Senate can establish ad-hoc committees to conduct fact-finding operations for certain issues or concerns as necessary. Any USF student, faculty, or staff member may serve on an ad-hoc committee. Senate ad-hoc committees may only be initiated by either:

408.2.1 A majority vote by the Senate in favor of the creation of the committee, which is to be written in the form of a resolution, or 408.2.2 The Senate President, who must inform the Senate of the formation of the committee upon the next regular Senate meeting.

408.3 Senate ad-hoc committees formed by a majority vote of Senate shall have the power to elect a chair for the committee. Committee membership shall be elected by the Senate upon the formation of the ad-hoc committee. Only ad-hoc committee members may vote in the election of a chair. The resolution creating the committee shall set deadlines for the committee.

408.4 In Senate ad-hoc committees formed by the Senate President, he or she shall appoint both the chair and the committee members. The committee members shall set the business and deadlines of the committee.

408.5 Senate ad-hoc committee meetings shall be open to the public.

408.6 The duties of the chair of an ad-hoc committee shall be outlined in the Senate Rules of Procedure.

408.7 Ad-hoc committees created by the Senate President shall be disbanded upon either:

408.7.1 A supermajority vote in the affirmative by the ad-hoc committee, or
408.7.2 At the end of the current Senate term,

408.8 Ad-hoc committees created by a majority vote in the Senate shall be disbanded upon either

408.8.1 A supermajority vote in the affirmative by the ad-hoc committee, or 408.8.2 Upon the deadline set by the Senate upon the adoption of the committee.
