Learning Activities Sequence
Preview: Distribute one copy of Handout 1 (Florida Spanish Explorers Vocabulary Launch) to each student.
Step 1: Ask students to write down what they think an explorer is.
Step 2: Have students turn to a neighbor and share their thoughts about what they think an “explorer” is. As one student talks, the other should record his or her thoughts in the second column of the organizer.

Step 3: Have students write down a definition of “explorer” from a credible source (such as a dictionary, textbook, or atlas); e.g., a person who travels to and investigates unknown areas.

Step 4: Have students brainstorm as many examples as possible to illustrate the word “explorer.” Ask for volunteers to share their ideas with the class.

Step 5: Ask students to draw what an explorer might look like.

Reading Notes: Explain to students that in this lesson they will learn about some of the Spanish explorers that sailed to Florida from Spain in search of gold and other riches. They will investigate individual explorers, their motivations for exploration, the discoveries they made, the challenges they faced, and their role in the colonization of Florida.

Divide students into four groups, assigning each group one of the Spanish explorers: Ponce de León, de Soto, Menéndez de Áviles, and Narvaez & Cabeza de Vaca. Distribute the readings and reading matrices to the groups.

As students read the handout on their assigned explorer, they are to complete the matrix (although students will be working in cooperative groups, they should record the information on their own matrix).

After students complete their matrices, have each group share their findings with the rest of the class.

Closure and Evaluation
Ask students to revisit the 4-column organizer they completed at the beginning of the class. Have students compare what they wrote and drew, considering what they now know about Spanish explorers in Florida.
