ACADEMIC LIBRARY POSITIONS

Campus Dean, Nelson Poynter Memorial Library. University of South Florida St. Petersburg. July 2020-present. Dean, Nelson Poynter Memorial Library. July 2016-June 2020.

In 2018, the State of Florida passed a law mandating consolidation of the three separately accredited USF institutions into one accredited institution. The change in title is the result of the USF consolidation, effective July 1, 2020.

Responsibilities include: overall supervision of the campus library, its operations, and services. Strategic financial planning budget and expenditures (total budget: $2M), advocating and interacting with the colleges and other units of the university, developing and strengthening partnerships on and off campus, and raising funds to supplement the operating budget. For the USF Libraries faculty, acting as faculty affairs liaison for issues related to governance, faculty professional development, and promotion.

Prior to the consolidation, responsibilities also included: Strategic financial planning budget and expenditures (total budget: $4M), developing and implementing a strategic vision for the library, and setting guidelines. Additional areas of responsibility included the Center for Innovative Teaching & Learning and Online Learning & Technology Services (distance learning and classroom support).

Notable Accomplishments:

- Provided leadership for Library teams transitioning face-to-face courses to remote delivery for the COVID 19 emergency in March 2020. While 222 courses were already online, a total of 444 had to be transitioned for remote delivery. Courses were up and running without a break in instruction.
- Led the Nelson Poynter Memorial Library's digitization of The Weekly Challenger, an African-American newspaper published in St. Petersburg. The Library now serves as the newspaper's archive for current electronic issues in addition to the digitized historical print issues. The Library received $300,000 in from the State of Florida through a legislative budget request to digitize, preserve, and sustain the newspaper. The Library remains committed to enhancing the archive with finding aids and documenting the African-American experience in St. Petersburg, FL.
- Initiated a textbook affordability program at USF St. Petersburg, incorporating the USF Tampa Textbook Affordability Project, into local campus operations. This initiative saved St. Petersburg students approximately $1M since 2016.
- Directed efforts to create the Center for Innovative Teaching & Learning (CITL) at USF St. Petersburg. Since 2017, CITL has hosted approximately 10 Faculty Learning Communities, which have resulted in several peer-reviewed publications as well as presentations at national and international conferences.

From 2016-2020, collaborated with USF St. Petersburg's Regional Vice Chancellor of External Affairs to maintain CITL funding (annual $263K) from the State of Florida through a legislative budget request. The university now funds CITL through its operating budget.

- Advanced improvements to spaces, through strategic planning efforts, in the Nelson Poynter Memorial Library. Consequently, USF St. Petersburg invested $450,000 to improve the library exterior by adding shade, more seating, and WiFi, taking advantage of the beautiful campus surroundings. Also, worked with architects to develop major plans for renovation of the first-floor. The Library has $1M in hand from an estate gift as well as a $250,000 cash gift. The projected is estimated to cost $2.5M.
