André Rieu Live in Dresden: Wedding at the Opera

Recorded at Dresden’s Semper Opera House in 2008, this musical confection from André Rieu is both a concert and a real wedding party in one of the world’s most beautiful opera houses. The charming bride and groom, part of the famous “Vienna Debutantes,” are joined by 40 pairs of dancers from the Elmayer Dance School in Vienna, as well as sopranos Mirusia Louwerse and Carmen Monarcha, the Platinum Tenors, baritone Morschi Franz, and the Johann Strauss Orchestra and Choir. Airs Tuesday, December 1 at 8 p.m.
Season’s Greetings

The holidays came early this year at WUSF Public Broadcasting. Thanks to you, WUSF 89.7’s Fall Membership Campaign was an unqualified success. We welcomed 1,050 new members to our family and raised more than $400,000 from new and renewing members. Bravo to everyone involved!

Speaking about our loyal supporters, we recently celebrated our Cornerstone Society members during the second annual Cornerstone Appreciation event. This year’s guest was the witty and insightful Susan Stamberg, an NPR special correspondent. She touched the hearts of everyone there.

Events like these are our way of thanking you for your support. We never forget that our programming depends on you.

Celebrating your generosity means we’re as frugal with your contributions as ever. Technology has been our greatest asset in decreasing costs for many operational activities at WUSF and in increasing the additional activities we can provide as public broadcasters.

One change you’ll notice this year is that we’re saving money and staying green by not mailing out holiday cards. You’ll find our holiday wishes to you on the address page and throughout First Choice. We planned our programming so you can create holiday memories with your family as you enjoy the festive holiday programs.

Looking ahead to summer 2010, our intrepid travel guru, Burt Wolf, is planning no less than five riverboat cruises of Europe. We invite all the explorers out there to join on any or all of them. His wide-ranging voyages explore Austria, the Czech Republic, France, Germany, Holland, Hungary, Slovakia and Switzerland. It’s Europe as you’ve never seen it before—an up-close and personal experience of culinary, cultural and architectural treasures. No matter which cruise you sign up for, a portion of the proceeds of your booking helps support WUSF Public Broadcasting.

As you gather with your family and special friends to celebrate the holidays, I hope you’ll take time to enjoy the inspired seasonal programs on WUSF. Best wishes to you from all of us!

JoAnn Urofsky General Manager
Cruise with Burt Wolf!

Cruise the rivers of Europe with television journalist Burt Wolf. Choose from five upcoming tours (or go on all five!) and experience a world of tastes, sights, and architectural and cultural highlights. The tours are: Danube Cruise through Czech Republic, Germany, Austria, Slovakia, and Hungary (June 19-30, 2010); River Cruising through France: Paris to Normandy (July 19-27, 2010); Rhine River Cruise through Switzerland, France, Germany, and Holland (July 31-August 8, 2010); River Cruising through France: From Nice To Paris (August 15-26, 2010); Rhine River Cruise through Holland, Germany, and France (September 11-19, 2010). A portion of the proceeds from tickets will be directed to WUSF Public Broadcasting. Info: 1-888-365-3443.

LA MUSICA

The 24th season of La Musica International Chamber Music Festival opens with “Sonata a Due,” featuring pianist Derek Han and violinist Federico Agostini in a performance of sonatas by Debussy, Ravel and Franck, December 7, at The Charles Ringling House in Sarasota. Tickets, which include cocktails and a candlelit dinner, are $150 and $250. This season’s festival runs April 7-21, with concerts on April 9, 12, 15, 18, and 21, at the Sarasota Opera House. For Sonata reservations, call 941-371-6798. For festival info, visit: www.lamusicafestival.org.

THE PERLMAN MUSIC PROGRAM

The Perlman Music Program (PMP) is returning for its sixth residency in Sarasota, December 20-31. Thirty-five students from around the globe are instructed by renowned musicians led by the celebrated violinist Itzhak Perlman. Area music lovers are invited to free rehearsals and master classes on the USF Sarasota-Manatee campus. PMP’s graduation ceremony is the “Celebration Concert,” with Itzhak Perlman, at the Sarasota Opera House, January 2, 5 p.m. For tickets, call 941-366-8450, Ext 1. For schedule information, www.perlmanmusicprogramsuncoast.org.

Thank you!

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to all of our new and renewing members, volunteers and staff who helped make the WUSF 89.7 Fall Membership Campaign such a terrific success. We received 3,244 pledges of support, totaling $406,150. Thank you for making us shine!

Cornerstone Appreciation

NPR special correspondent Susan Stamberg joined WUSF to honor its Cornerstone Society members on November 7. This annual event celebrates and thanks those special donors who contribute an annual gift of $1,000 or more to WUSF. More than 100 Cornerstone members joined Stamberg and WUSF staff and volunteers for a brunch and a behind-the-scenes tour of the station. “Susan was so gracious and did her best to speak with everyone,” said Cathy Coccia, director of development at WUSF. “Our Cornerstone members are our most dedicated supporters. They love WUSF. This event was our way to love them back.” Coccia says that Cornerstone membership has grown from 152 people in 2003 to more than 400 in 2009.
