Super Bowl Sunday?

We love it, too, but here’s a suggestion. Record the game, skip the commercials, and watch some great classic movies instead. Our kick-off starts at 5 p.m.

Meet the players:
The Strange Love of Martha Ivers (1944) Barbara Stanwyck and Van Heflin are called for unnecessary roughness in a brutal and unsportsmanlike display. 5 p.m.

To Have and Have Not (1944) With only seconds remaining, Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall make a bold Hail Mary play for the French Resistance on Nazi-controlled Martinique. 7 p.m.

Anastasia (1956) The pretender to the Russian throne is off-sides and out of bounds in a surprising move by Ingrid Bergman and Yul Brynner. 8:45 p.m.

Royal Wedding (1951) Talk about fancy footwork! Fred Astaire and Jane Powell dominate the romantic gridiron in a heart-warming team effort. 10:30 p.m.
