Joanna Lumley: Greek Odyssey

The much-loved British actress Joanna Lumley (Absolutely Fabulous, Joanna Lumley’s Nile) takes us on an extraordinary odyssey through the vast and varied landscape of Greece — the birthplace of drama, democracy, language, western science and medicine. Lumley brings us along on a climb up Mount Olympus, the country’s highest peak, and then takes us on an exploration of the unique blend of the ancient and modern that is life in Greece today. Along the way, we visit magnificent churches and monasteries, charming villages, a local bear sanctuary — and we even get to hear Nana Mouskouri sing “Ave Maria” in the ancient theater at Epidaurus.Segueing from past to present, Lumley introduces us to a cast of fascinating characters and experiences.

Airs Thursdays, 9–10:30 p.m., September 20 and 27.

Rick Steves Special: Rome, Eternally Engaging

In this hour-long travel special, Rick Steves explores the “Eternal City” of Rome, a grand and ancient metropolis rich with exquisite art, vibrant culture and centuries of history. Along his journey, Steves traces the rise and fall of classical Rome, makes a pilgrimage to the Vatican, enjoys a Roman feast, and mixes and mingles with the locals.

Airs Monday, September 17, at 8 p.m.
