OCTOBER HIGHLIGHTS

This Old House The new season kicks off with the “Jersey Shore Project,” a heartfelt portrait of a region struggling to rebuild smarter, better and stronger. The series continues with a visit to an 1872 Italianate-style home in a Boston suburb. Airs Wednesdays at 9:30 p.m. New season begins October 9.

Lidia’s Kitchen Lidia Bastianich conjures simple and seasonal dishes, teaching viewers to draw on their roots, allow for spontaneity, and cultivate a sense of home in the kitchen. Filled with tips and techniques, Bastianich imparts a trustworthy curriculum of kitchen wisdom. Airs Wednesdays at 11 a.m., beginning October 23.

Genealogy Roadshow takes a historical look into a community by exploring the genealogy of its citizens. In each episode, experts guide participants (from Nashville, Austin, Detroit and San Francisco) through family genealogies. Airs Wednesdays at 10 p.m., beginning October 2.

Latino Americans

Actor Benjamin Bratt narrates this landmark, six-hour series chronicling the rich and varied history of Latinos, who helped shape the United States and have become the country’s largest minority group. Covering the 1500s to the present day, Latino Americans tells the story of early settlement, conquest and immigration, of tradition and reinvention; of anguish and celebration; and of the gradual construction of a new American identity from diverse sources that connects and empowers millions of people today.
