NOVA “Can Alzheimer’s Be Stopped?”

Alzheimer’s ravages the minds of over 40 million victims worldwide. Join scientists as they untangle the cause of this tragic illness and go behind the scenes of major drug trials to discover the therapies that may slow and even prevent the disease. Airs Sunday, April 24, 8 p.m.

Exotic Invaders: Pythons in the Everglades

documents how the Everglades’ fragile ecosystem is under attack by invasive species, including the Burmese python, a ravenous snake that rivals the anaconda in size and appetite. Featuring interviews with experts on the front lines of the battle. Airs Thursday, April 28, 10 p.m.

For Earth Day, we celebrate Florida’s unique environment with two WUSF productions: Florida Wildlife Corridor Expeditions — Everglades to Okefenokee and The Forgotten Coast: Return to Wild Florida. Airs Thursday, April 21, beginning at 8 p.m.

It’s not too late to join us April 14th for an epicurean experience right down the middle of Bayshore Drive. For details and ticket information, call (813) 661-0823 or visit wusf.org/guesttable.

Globe Trekker’s new season transports viewers to unforgettable destinations through stunning photography, indigenous music and an adventurous spirit. Season 15 features new journeys to India, Cuba, Peru, England, a U.S. road trip through the Rust Belt Highway, and a “Food Hour” about the story of chocolate. Begins Monday, April 4, 10 p.m.

Father Brown

The lovable quirky Father Brown (Mark Williams) cycles back onto screens for a fourth series of mysteries in the sleepy Cotswold village of Kembleford. Once again, he is aided by no-nonsense parish secretary Mrs. McCarthy, glamorous socialite Lady Felicia Montague and her chauffeur Sid Carter. In this series, a man missing for years returns just as his wife is about to remarry, but when he’s found dead, suspicion falls on those closest to him. The village gets a dose of Hollywood glamour when a film crew arrives. And Sid’s romance with a brewer’s daughter gets complicated when he finds out not only that she’s married, but that he is in love with the woman he is married to. Season 4 premieres Tuesday, April 26, 8 p.m.

Shetland

In the third season, Detective Inspector Jimmy Perez works on the case of a young man who disappears while traveling by ferry between Aberdeen and the capital of the Shetland Islands, Lerwick. Suspicious of foul play, Jimmy and his team take on an investigation that ends up having far-reaching consequences for both themselves and the local community. Season 3 premieres Wednesday, April 27, 19 p.m.
