The Florida Sentinel-Bulletin Publishing Company, 2307 1st Avenue, was burglarized over the weekend.

C. Bylne Andrews, Jr., editor of the Florida Sentinel, said the thieves broke into a Miami-type window in an automatic mechanical device, broke down a facade, and forced open the doors of the building.

Police at the time of the police report said they had no information leading to the burglary, though several pieces of jewelry were stolen from their usual places in the main office.

The investigating officers said that in the last 30 minutes, the lock in the automatic mechanical device was left in the restroom after the culprits discovered that there was a second lock to the window, according to the officers.

A burglar used a knife or some similar implement to cut the screen on a window at the home of Mrs. E. A. Shoop, 2711 S. Aida, Apt. 3. Taken from the house was a color television set and a stereo component, both worth $150, were stolen.

TITUSVILLE — A controversial case in which a Brevard judge placed a confessed heroin pusher on probation in September is expected to go before the county grand jury sometime this week.

The case of Reginald Tyronne Shone, 31, son of NAACP Brevard President Rudy Shone, has received a lot of publicity, primarily because of a running feud over the case between Brevard Sheriff Leigh S. Wilson and County Solicitor Jerry Bross.

Bross has alleged young Stone was saved from arrest in a narcotics raid by a tip from a member of the sheriff's department and has asked Gov. Reubin Askew to investigate the matter.

Wilson, who asked State Attorney Abbott Herring to call the grand jury into session, has charged Bross with poor investigative methods.

Sheriff's investigators spent the weekend preparing an investigation of Bross' investigation into the case.

The charge sheriff's inspector S. R. "Pippin" DeHitt tipped off about the raid reportedly came from Willie Duchess Swan, 36, a friend of Shone who is serving a prison term for aggravated assault.

Swan was sentenced for assaulting a sheriff's deputy in the raid from which Stone is said to have escaped.

Court of Record Judge Anthony J. Roseman, Jr., placed Shone on probation after Stone pleaded guilty to sale of heroin Sept. 22. Wilson and DeWitt have been

Young Tampan Was Eye Witness To Hit-And-Run Death Of Brother

By BON PRESSLEY

Sentinel Staff Writer

Early this week, Robert Lowry, 26, 3250 Grace Street, Brevard Sentinel-Bulletin, an eye witness mentioned in the capital murder case of the death of his brother, Eddie John Lowry, 18.

Robert said he and Eddie had just left the Hide-A-Way Lounge on Platt and William early Saturday morning and went to the Art Theater on Palmetto.

About 10 p.m., while they were staying in the bar for about three minutes the Lowry brothers, accompanied by Lalah Reeder, started across the street to get a drink.

Mr. Reeder's son, Robert—a freshman at Bethune-Cookman College—was her special guest and shared honors with her at the head table.

Mrs. Reeder served the Florida Congress as State Chairman of Exceptional Child Education, for two consecutive terms. She is also currently serving as a member of the Florida Congress on Human Relations and represented the state at a southeastern regional meeting held in Atlanta earlier this year.

into Eddie's 1966 Oldsmobile. This was at 2:15.

As Eddie was about to enter his car in the doorway, all three looked up and saw a car speeding down the street at what Robert estimated to be 70 or 80 miles an hour. In an attempt to avoid being hit by the fast moving car, Eddie stepped in front of the car to cross the street.

The car then careened to the right striking Eddie's parked vehicle on the left ever sending the Oldsmobile forward ramming into Low.

Robert said he saw his brother go into the air from the impact of his own car coming down to be hit by the car again. Ed- die's body finally came to rest with his head striking the curb stones coming off a storefront.

The driver of the other car, later identified as Armian Joe McCullom, 21, left the scene.

Twenty-three-year-old Cornelius Newsome, 26, 3136 12th Street, was shot in the side late last Wednesday night while trying to get on a freighter for "my old lady" from another man's garden.

Newsome and Robert James Mutcherson, 28, 12th Street, were walking near the home of Theo Overton, 3320 N. 24th Street, when one of them thought about the woman who Newsome was visiting and ran across the lot.

The boy told the investigating officers that they heard two gunshots. He then ran into the house. After searching a room, the officers realized that he had been shot in the side. He was taken to Tampa General for treatment where he signed a complaint.

The Fight Is On Against Apartheid

Once again the United Nations' General Assembly has overwhelmingly condemned 1971's attempts to suppress the African liberation movements as a violation of the United Nations Charter.

The resolution, approved by the UN, calls on all athletes and sportsmen and women to participate in sports activity wherever discrimination is practised. This should go far to help this cause.

Two other important resolutions were adopted, the first of which deals with the refusal to accept any nation that condones apartheid and declares there be no recognition between arms for external defense and internal repression.

The most significant to the U.S. government and private industries is the proposal to break off all cultural, economic, and military aid to such countries.

ST. PETERSBURG — A proposal to tax residents of St. Petersburg to pay for free public transportation is being put into final form by a special council. Vice Mayor C. M. Cotes Wimbish. Mrs. Wimbish said her plan will call for some kind of tax on utility services- similar to the tax levied years ago to support the then-Mound Park Hospital and all of the revenues that would feed the city's general revenue fund.

If Pinellas legislators reject her proposal, Mrs. Wimbish said she will ask them to reintroduce a bill for a St. Petersburg transit system and earmark the revenue from the tolls at the city's transit system has increased its deficit because of reduction in bus fares to 15 cents during certain hours.

With a free transit system, Mrs. Wimbish said more buses could be added to the city's fleet to beat­ up the system by establishing more routes, and more buses to routes already established.

Until the city's fleet is increased, Mrs. Wimbish said she would like to think it would attract just shod everybody," Mrs. Wimbish said.

TALLAHASSEE — Gov. Reubin Askew Friday named Dr. Claud Anderson as his education coordinator as a member of his "Little Cabinet," the second Negro to be a department of bis

of the people of St. Petersburg and it should not always be self-supporting," Mrs. Wimbish said.

Tallahassee-Dr. Claud Anderson, a former Miami city commissioner, as community affairs secre­

Andrews has been working in the governor's office since February 1972. He was an aide to Florida's Governor from 1972 to 1972, where he was a counselor at Wayne College. He is a graduate of Wayne College and holds bachelor's, master's and doctorate degrees from Wayne State.

The Junior Choir, Choir No. 3 and the Youth usher Board served for the day's services. Rev. Williams brought the morning service to a close with prayer and the call to prayer and the meeting and Bible study.

Services were very good at all churches in the community. The following Monday night list: Mrs. Louise Sander, Mrs. Daisy Turner, Mrs. Carrie Howard, Mr. John C. Ray. The community is in sympathy with Mrs. Roseae we. I would like to think would attract just about everybody," Mrs. Wimbish said.
MASONIC LODGE HAS ANNUAL BANQUET

The interior of the Shrine Temple on 29th Street was decorated with holiday lights and colors for the annual banquet given by St. James Lodge No. 5. Members of the lodge at the civic affair were Albert Adams, Worshipful Master; Willie Campbell, Junior Warden; Ardie Vickers, Senior Deacon; Walter Dunbar, Treasurer; Leon Mayberry, Secretary; Edward Pollard, Junior Steward; Edward Johnson, Senior Steward; Henry Williams, Tyler; and Red Jake Sumpter, Sick Committee Chairman.

Among those attending were, seated from left, Walter Dunbar and Kay Sumpter; standing, John Givens; Mrs. O. W. Morgan and Orren Morgan. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Talmadge Nelson.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Wills, Mr. and Mrs. Elba Washington, Mrs. Dora Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Givens, Mrs. Harry Stovall, and Mr. and Mrs. William Stallworth.

When gift giving time came around, each member drew a number at a basket. When a number was called, the corresponding numbered gift was given. There were nine raffle baskets and everybody went home happy. Mrs. Lula Sampier received a first prize gift. She was the lone birthday celebrant.

All this holiday fun was Saturday night at the home of the president, Mrs. Nellie Bythewood, and members beside Mrs. Sumpter. When members arrived at the party a number was put on their name tag. The hostesses were Mmes. Theressa Huntley, Zeze Murray, Elsie Welch, Annie Walker, Beulah Pearl Buntun, Hattie Davis, and Ann Glymph.

Before the gift they brought.

Tips For Making Poinsettias

Poinsettias should be in full bloom according to Florida Nurserymen and Growers Association (FNAGA). Many nurseries will have flowers in pots or other containers. You can enjoy the beauty of the flowers for the holiday season and set the plant in your home grounds later on.

If you have Poinsettias already growing in your yard you may wish to cut some of the flowers for preholiday parties. Here are some suggestions to make Poinsettias last longer.

When you are ready to cut your flowers take along a pail of hot boiling water. After the cut has been made and the flower removed from its growing stem dip the cut end into the boiling water about one inch. This prevents excessive bleeding and preserves the cell content of the stem. Emerge the stems after this operation in a pail of cold water overnight. Next day arrange for your table decoration.

Poinsettias treated in this manner will last for at least seven to ten days, or longer according to Florida Nurserymen and Growers Association (FNAGA).

Rep. Cherry, New 'Radical' In House

TALLAHASSEE — The Florida Legislature's first black women representative, Gwen Cherry, D-Miami, is making a name for herself at the state capital and she's coming on strong.

"I guess I am more radical than the other women legislators," said the 48-year-old mother of two, who won her house seat last year.

Exceptionally well qualified for her role as a woman legislator, Mrs. Cherry ( Goodman James is in charge of adult education in Dade County) was a teacher for 20 years and has been a lawyer for five years. Her background interests reflect both professions.

"I'm concerned about education and social conditions in the working class of children through the state," she said.

We don't seem to realize the first five years of a child's life are the most important, yet he doesn't go to school until he's 6.

I'm also interested in reforming our judicial system in Florida, because it is definitely broken," Mrs. Cherry added.

A member of the House Judiciary Committee, the legislator observed the committee was working to eliminate both municipal courts and justices of the peace, in addition to adding two judges to the state supreme court.

"These measures have come about due to a series of public hearings in six Florida cities, where grass roots opinions were heard," she said.

"Of course, any reforming of our judicial system can still be improved upon. It's just a step in the right direction."

Although Mrs. Cherry admits for legislative seat is a full-time job—"you're either listening to constituents or speaking to rooms"—she still finds time to handle an occasional law case.

Such as the suit pending against National Aviation's slips. "Fly Me," a picture a suitably groundless, advertising not only the sitter but his Mrs. Cherry put it, "Something denouncing, demonstrating that she is a step in the right direction."

"I'm representing NOW (National Organization for Women), which brought the suit against National," she explained.

"Fortunately, the temporary injunction we sought was not granted, but our court date to gain a permanent injunction is set for next month."

What are NOW's chances of winning the suit? "About 50-50," Mrs. Cherry said.

Child care and judicial reform aren't her only causes. Mrs. Cherry is on the band wagon for several other issues, among them capital punishment, prison reform, women's rights, abolition of pay toilets and the licensing of bastard operators.

"I introduced only one bill during the last session of the legislature and it was the only one on capital punishment," she stressed.

"This is a place in our society today for telling people, even if it is within the law, life imprisonment is wrong.

Her thoughts on prison reform are especially poignant in light of her minor in criminology from Florida State University.

"Our state prison system is ar- lready overcrowded. We must upgrade the prison employees and the way to do that is to increase salaries and reorganize our education," she said.

She also says she has visited Florida's three maximum security prisons, Radiant, Lehigh and Apalachee (for first offenders). At a view of one or them at any time is entirely possible, she contends.

About women's rights? Mrs. Cherry smiled, a twinkle in her eye, and replied, "I'm hoping to get our legislators to take a more humanistic attitude about women's rights next session."

As for her ballot: "My stand is for total repeal of abortion laws, of course."

Gwen Cherry obviously practices what she preaches. She's a member of the Women's Political Caucus, which organized last fall in Miami to enable women to run for political office.

"It's the only way to make drastic changes," she said. "We must use the female voting power. 61 per cent nationally and 54 per cent in Florida—because we need all the human potential we can. Change our problems."

She's also interested in young people. The organized Cherry's Club for high school students and Cherry's Club for college students last year.

About seven of them are selected each year to go to Tallahassee to help out in offices, she explained.

"It's a good way to in- terract with people who are fascinated with the political scene."

Her own candidates are Mary Elizabeth a cousin of Florida ADM and William Barnett, with the Army in Virginia.

"Gwen is an active member of the House who makes her voice heard up here," said one veteran capital officer. "She's got guts. How many other representatives do you think would go up and introduce a bill to eliminate pay toilets? Not many, but it's an issue that's important to her and she's doing something about it."

That's the kind of gal she is," he added.

Teddy Black Choice, Poll Says

CHICAGO — Remarks of a poll conducted by Survey Magazine here show that Sen. Edward Kennedy, D-Mass., is the favored Front- runner amongst leading black voters in America. Kennedy far outpaced all other potential candidates with 30 per cent of the blacks polled favoring him. Sen. Hubert Humphrey, D-Minn., was second with 27 per cent, New York Mayor John Lindsay was third with 17 per cent. President Nixon ran a close second with a 9 per cent. Also ahead of Nixon were Sen. Edward Muskie, D-Me., Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., and former Sen. Eugene McCarthy.

Minority Jobs In Prison Punished

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. — Following similar recommendations of the Handbook As a black member of the NAACP, Mrs. Cherry does not con- sider that the legislation will be a step in the right direction."

"I'm representing NOW (National Organization for Women) which brought the suit against National," she explained.

"Unfortunately, the temporary injunction we sought was not granted, but our court date to gain a permanent injunction is set for next month."

"Our state prison system is already overcrowded. We must upgrade the prison employees and the way to do that is to increase salaries and reorganize our education," she said.

She also says she has visited Florida's three maximum security prisons, Radiant, Lehigh and Apalachee (for first offenders). At a view of any one of them at any time is entirely possible, she contends.

About women's rights? Mrs. Cherry smiled, a twinkle in her eye, and replied, "I'm hoping to get our legislators to take a more humanistic attitude about women's rights next session."

As for her ballot: "My stand is for total repeal of abortion laws, of course."

Gwen Cherry obviously practices what she preaches. She's a member of the Women's Political Caucus, which organized last fall in Miami to enable women to run for political office.

"It's the only way to make drastic changes," she said. "We must use the female voting power. 61 per cent nationally and 54 per cent in Florida—because we need all the human potential we can. Change our problems."

She's also interested in young people. The organized Cherry's Club for high school students and Cherry's Club for college students last year.

About seven of them are selected each year to go to Tallahassee to help out in offices, she explained. "It's a good way to inter- ract with people who are fascinated with the political scene."

Her own candidates are Mary Elizabeth a cousin of Florida ADM and William Barnett, with the Army in Virginia.

"Gwen is an active member of the House who makes her voice heard up here," said one veteran capital officer. "She's got guts. How many other representatives do you think would go up and introduce a bill to eliminate pay toilets? Not many, but it's an issue that's important to her and she's doing something about it."

That's the kind of gal she is," he added.

Teddy Black Choice, Poll Says

CHICAGO — Remarks of a poll conducted by Survey Magazine here show that Sen. Edward Kennedy, D-Mass., is the favored Front- runner amongst leading black voters in America. Kennedy far outpaced all other potential candidates with 30 per cent of the blacks polled favoring him. Sen. Hubert Humphrey, D-Minn., was second with 27 per cent, New York Mayor John Lindsay was third with 17 per cent. President Nixon ran a close second with a 9 per cent. Also ahead of Nixon were Sen. Edward Muskie, D-Me., Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., and former Sen. Eugene McCarthy.

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. — Following similar recommendations of the Handbook As a black member of the NAACP, Mrs. Cherry does not con- sider that the legislation will be a step in the right direction."

"I'm representing NOW (National Organization for Women) which brought the suit against National," she explained.

"Unfortunately, the temporary injunction we sought was not granted, but our court date to gain a permanent injunction is set for next month."

What are NOW's chances of winning the suit? "About 50-50," Mrs. Cherry said.

Child care and judicial reform aren't her only causes. Mrs. Cherry is on the band wagon for several other issues, among them capital punishment, prison reform, women's rights, abolition of pay toilets and the licensing of bastard operators.

"I introduced only one bill during the last session of the legislature and it was the only one on capital punishment," she stressed. "This is a place in our society today for telling people, even if it is within the law, life imprisonment is wrong.

Her thoughts on prison reform are especially poignant in light of her minor in criminology from Florida State University.

"Our state prison system is already overcrowded. We must upgrade the prison employees and the way to do that is to increase salaries and reorganize our education," she said.

She also says she has visited Florida's three maximum security prisons, Radiant, Lehigh and Apalachee (for first offenders). At a view of any one of them at any time is entirely possible, she contends.

Isaac Hayes Wins NAACP Image Award For Shaft

HOLLYWOOD — Isaac Hayes, composer-performer, received the “Image Award” for “Best Musical Motion Picture Score of 1971” for MGM’s “Shaft”.

Hayes was presented his award from the Jackson 5 before a capacity audience, which gave him a standing ovation, at the Fifth Annual Hollywood NAACP Image Awards, held here at the Beverly Hilton Hotel.

Hayes composed and performed on the film soundtrack of “Shaft”, the MGM release, starring Richard Roundtree. The double record set the Stax Organization’s largest selling album, which to date has sold more than 2,500,000 copies, in just over a three month period.

Negro Resigns From U.N. Job

WASHINGTON — Arthur A. Fletcher, one of the administration’s highest-ranking blacks, has resigned from the U.S. delegation to the United Nations, the White House announced Wednesday.

President Nixon accepted the resignation in a “Dear Art” letter, the White House said. “With you, moving the ball is going to be tougher,” it said Nixon told Fletcher.

Fletcher will become executive director of the United Negro College Fund Board. The administration had asked him from assistant labor secretary to the United Nations only a few months ago.

The White House deputy press secretary, Gerald L. Warren, said Fletcher was a chief proponent of the “Philadelphia Plan” requiring employment of more persons of minority races in the construction industry.

In a letter to Nixon, Fletcher said that after assuming his new job next month, “I stand ready to assist you in your official capacity as President should the opportunity arise.”

“I am especially grateful for the support you personally gave me and the Philadelphia Plan plus other opportunities provided that allowed me to grow and develop,” Fletcher said.

WASHINGTON, D. C. — James M. Roche, chairman of the Board of General Motors, accepts "The Friends Award" from Berkeley Burrell, left, president of National Business League and Robert J. Brown, right, Special Assistant to President Nixon. The occasion was a testimonial luncheon in Washington, D. C., recently where more than 75 blacks from throughout the country came to pay homage to Roche who is retiring as GM chairman at the end of the year. Roche was described as "A man who is big enough to be chairman of the board of GM and small enough to be a fighter in the struggle for obtaining equal justice for all Americans, regardless of race, color," Brown and Burrell were co-chairmen of the affair.

BLACK CAGE COACH AT BOSTON U. TRIES TROTTER STYLE

BOSTON — Ron Mitchell's career as a college basketball coach is only a week old but he's already shown himself to be a free-thinking innovator.

Mitchell, 33, became one of the very few black coaches at a major college when he was appointed basketball boss at Boston University last spring.

Though he'd been away from basketball for four years, serving as an assistant football coach, and despite the fact he was taki-ing over a 7-18 team, Mitchell surprised even his employers by predicting he thought the Terriers could make the tournament grade in his first season.

True, he'd inherited several varity regulars from outgoing Charlie Luce, the new assistant athletic director, and had some promising freshmen coming up from a 12-7 squad.

But it had been some years since Boston University had enjoyed anything like tournament-level cage success and in fact had compiled a combined 11-47 record over the last 12 seasons.

When the B.U. squad trotted onto the Boston Garden court last week for their opening game against neighboring Boston College, the Terriers formed a series of circles and, while the school band jazzed it up, went into a half-court morning routine that was clearly a takeoff on the famous Harlem Globetrotter warm-up.

Flipping basketballs over their heads, passing behind their backs, bounding passes through their legs and taking football-style handoffs, the Terriers spent several minutes in their fancy warm-up session before ever going to the basket in standard pregame passing-shooting format.

As they upset their slightly-favored R.C. rivals, 53-41, in the Meesport Tournament opener, the B.U. players did some other strange things.

One of them included a basket-guarding style by 6-6? junior Jim Garvin that was clearly reminiscent of the intimidating defense Boston Celtic star Bill Russell.

Another was the substitution of guards in pairs, a platoon-style Mitchell admits he carried over from his days as defensive coach in football.

Why the Globetrotter routine? "It's two-fold," Kentucky State graduate Mitchell said. "It provides a good rhythm for ball-handling purposes and it gives the players a chance to relax.

Besides, it includes a lot of things that are used in modern basketball. And how else would you select for a behind-the-back pass or a between-the-legs dribble?"

"I'd seen it done by Morehead College in 1963 and 1964 and I know other teams have done it so it's not that new. It helps the kids get loose and relaxed. I asked the head directive for the music because that helps in the rhythm and provides a psychological lift."

Mitchell's squad, keying on Garvin's rebounding and a 3-point scoring average by sophomore Ron Boyd, won its first two starts to recite the rookie coach's tournament prediction.

The loss of their "quarter-back," veteran junior guard Viz Garvin, to knee surgery following the second game, will undoubtably hurt the Terrier tournament hope. But, thus far at least, it hasn't changed Mitchell's mind one bit.

BUBBA SMITH'S MOMMA HAS PH.D. AND DIGS FOOTBALL

NEW YORK — Bubba Smith, the same six-foot seven-inch, 260 pound defensive terror who has beard people implore him "Kill, Bubba, Kill!" never really paid much attention to his mother's career as one person to whom he always listens.

Her mother, she holds a Ph.D. and she loves football. "She knows it so good, she can explain things to me," Bubba says. "If she ever says something, her son about Baltimore's offensive line or Baltimore's tight end, I'll talk with her after a ball game some time and she'll try to tell me what Unitas should call next week," says Bubba.

"She understands football when she tells that story. It's clear he loves his mother, and what's so wrong about a son doing that even if he is 36 and plays defensive end for the Baltimore Colts?"

Since Mrs. Georgia Smith told her son about Baltimore's offensive line not coming off the ball the way it should the Colts have won three of the four games they played. The only loss was to Miami two weeks ago, 17-14, and that becomes somewhat more significant now because the Colts take on the Dolphins again in Baltimore Saturday with the AFC's Eastern Division lead hanging in the balance.

That doesn't necessarily mean Bubba Smith's mother has the answer to how the Colts can win this one. "I'll talk with her after a ball game some time and she'll try to tell me what Unitas should call next week," says Bubba.

And does he relay the message to John Unitas? "No," he says, "I never go back and tell."

It has been said Bubba Smith intimidates rival offensive lines. He says otherwise though. Let's say they have to respect me."

Lions' Mitchell Wary Of Bowl Trip

PITTSBURGH — Halfback Lydell Mitchell of Penn State said he has reservations about his team's trip to the Cotton Bowl in Dallas.

"My opinion at first was not to go because of how I felt about the recent events—those black athletes said, "But I guess if you look at it now, I don’t know if there is a way we can do it." I doubt that things have changed in football. I really never thought the world of sports and the players." Mitchell is one of the top 10 running backs in the nation.

Penn State meets Southwestern Conference champion Texas in the Cotton Bowl.

"Two years ago Penn State, undefeated, dominated and won the Cotton Bowl against the Oklahoma Sooners. Last year Penn State, unranked, went in and chose the Orange Bowl instead of the Cotton Bowl and the right to play Texas." The racial issue was said to be a factor in the team's decision then, but Coach Joe Paterno said he believes that the majority of black players on the team voted to go to the Cotton Bowl.

The award is the highest the university can bestow upon a football player and is not necessarily awarded annually. It is based on ability, scholarship, leadership and dedication to the principles of Xavier.

Former Middleton stars SHINE IN CAGE CAMPAIGN

With former Middleton stars Alfred Pyles and Ralph Kyle scoring honors in the western conference football season, some former Tiger stars are doing the same thing with the start of the basketball season.

El Johnson, a junior and making his first varsity start scored 16 points to lead the Chamberlain's Chiefs in a 68-39 victory over the Plainfield Peewees. Slim Davidson, who played a great deal for the Tigers last year, got in early foul trouble, came off the bench in the fourth quarter and led the Kings High K. L. to a 62-15 upset victory over the Robinson Knights. Franklins Brooks played a good game at defense.

Coach Hilton of King had been the Hillsborough Terriers open their season last Friday night with a couple of former Grenada stars, Harold Bradley and Otis Thomas. With these kind of stars, I wonder what kind of team coach Arthur Smith would have had this year.

Tampa, Grambling Head Little A-A

NEW YORK — Grambling College, one of the most fertile feeding grounds for the National Football League, placed offensive line and defensive line on the All-American team Thursday.

Alabama State, Texas A&M and Lamar were among the 10 first-team offensive-linemen and 10 first-team defensive-linemen.

Coach John Mazur emphasizing: "Lamar means to us on defense what Aron is to our offense." Lamar is a six-foot-four, 258-pound product of Texas Southern University. He has been named the third game of the season when he stepped in for the injured Houston.

KODAK ALL-AMERICANS INTERVIEWED IN MIAMI BEACH

Tom Darens, Ina, and Mike Taylor, the outstanding backfield trio that led Michigan to the Big Ten title, gave a New York Times reporter an interview last night in Miami Beach.

"I would have liked to have been there," said Ina, "but I had to go to a meeting with the Michigan State Fish and Game Commission." Mike Taylor, who was also there, said: "I would have liked to have been there, but I had to go to a meeting with the Michigan State Fish and Game Commission." TAMPA'S NIGHT BEAT

By JOHNNY JACOBS

Yours truly went back to the HIDEAWAY LOUNGE over on Platt for a second helping of the soulful GENEVA COPELAND. Meaning, of course, the soulful rendition that this talented young lady renders. After viewing the now floc ked called "THE BUS IS COMING," you truly need some "o" to ease his mind. The HIDEAWAY LOUNGE, packed to the ceiling as usual, is noted for catering to the best local talent the management can get its hands on. And seven days a week you'll find the best of Tampa performing in this soulful spot. It's a glamorous place to visit, but be sure to get there early if you want a seat.

The GATOR BAR over on 13th Street is not being left out when it comes to soul. They compensate for not having live soul entertainment with soul food and soulful Go-Go dancers. JOAN and DOTTIE, the soulful harmonists that whip up your favorite brew at a flash, keep you feeling right at home with their friendly welcome. GENE O'WENN is the master mind behind this joy house and his motto is "Keep The Rock House Rocking For The Rock House Rockers." Right on brother.

Holding the other bar in the south west of the GATOR BAR is the lovely "TROJAN," whose creativeness with drinks has made the GATOR BAR a favorite of many Tampa Night Beaters. All-in-all, the GATOR BAR is truly one of the nicer soulful spots in the Tampa Bay area.

The sophisticated TOMMY DONNIE is holding his ground and preparing for the highly favored LOU RAWL's show scheduled for Jan. 6 through Jan. 9, 1972. The place? KING ARTHUR'S INN. The is the gem of classic entertainment for the Tampa Bay area. Coupled with its restaurant, which unquestionably serves the coldest beer and wine in the area, you can find soul at its best when the house is bare footed. Check it out—true flavor is real.

As far as yours truly knows there is only one CHRISTMAS DANCE planned in the Tampa area for the holidays and that's the CLARENCE CARTER "TOO WEAK TO FIGHT" CARTER dance. This corner understands that on Sunday, Dec. 19 my main man will be doing his thing at the Hesterly Armory. Also on the show will be MISS MATILDA JONES. He is a small wonder why many complaints pile into this office concerning this gathering it seems no one is interested. This concert was also informed that MR. CARTER will be giving away prizes of $500 and $500 which, this time of the year is really needed. Yours truly has received an honorary invitation to the soulful affair and hope to see many of the TBN fans on the scene. Watch for the CLARENCE CARTER ad in Friday's edition of the Florida Sentinel. If there is anything else happening in the Bay area worth telling the soulful people about please let yours truly know about it. Don't let this be the only affair that the brothers and sisters can attend.

THAT'S MY CASE—SEE YA LATER PEACERS.
